Protector

Studio Case

Built for creators who move fast and work in demanding environments, the Pelican Protector Studio Case transforms the legendary Protector into a complete mobile workflow system. Engineered with next-generation HPX^P polymer for superior impact resistance and long-term durability, it delivers the trusted watertight, crushproof, and dustproof protection professionals rely on.

Purpose-configured for photography and video equipment, the Studio Case combines a fully customizable padded divider interior with integrated lid organization and in-case lighting, keeping every accessory protected, visible, and ready to deploy. New smooth-rolling wheels and upgraded push-button latches make transport and access faster and more intuitive wherever the job takes you.

- Waterproof, Crushproof & Dustproof - The legendary Protector, now built with next-generation HPX^p polymer for superior impact resistance.
