Elite

Mark the nation's 250th with a cooler engineered to the same standard that's defined Pelican for generations. The America 250 Elite Cooler Series is proudly made in the USA and inspired by 250 years of American resilience, combining our toughest roto-molded construction, extreme ice retention, and corrosion-resistant hardware with a patriotic, limited-edition design. Built for those who expect their gear to keep up no matter how far the road leads, and backed by our lifetime guarantee, this commemorative series is built for heavy-duty performance: freezer-grade gasket, wide-grip latches, molded-tie downs, and trusted insulation crafted to protect what you pack and keep you going longer.
