Universal Compact Pistol Case

The 1170 Protector Universal Compact Pistol Case delivers Pelican's gold standard of protection for compact and subcompact handguns. Two removable perforated foam inserts let you dial in a custom, secure fit by hand — no tools, no guesswork — for a wide range of pistol profiles. Built from next-generation HPXP polymer, the 1170 delivers the same uncompromising impact protection that professionals have trusted for over 50 years — watertight, dustproof, and crushproof, without exception. Whether you're headed to the range, storing in a vehicle, or transporting in demanding conditions, the 1170 Protector Universal Compact Pistol Case protects what matters and doesn't ask for ideal circumstances.

- Tool-Free Customization - Pull foam sections by hand in seconds to accommodate different pistol profiles, optics, or accessories. No tools. No downtime.
- Dedicated Magazine Storage - A built-in accessory compartment keeps a spare magazine organized and ready when you need it.
- Uncompromising Firearm Protection - Custom-fit foam locks your pistol in place, minimizing movement during transport and protecting optics, finishes, and critical components.
- Watertight, Dustproof & Crushproof - The 1170 Protector is built from next-generation HPXP polymer with an automatic pressure equalization valve that balances interior pressure while blocking water intrusion — keeping your firearm protected wherever you take it.
- Secure Latches with Padlock Protectors - Secure closures designed for reliable transport, with integrated protectors that accommodate a padlock for added security.
- Compact & Portable - Lightweight and space-efficient, the 1170 is the right case for range trips, vehicle storage, and everyday secure transport.
