Nevera portátil premium

For those who move fast, work hard, and pack only what matters, the America 250 Personal Cooler Series delivers Pelican performance into a smaller, highly portable form. Engineered in the USA to honor 250 years of American grit, each cooler features rugged construction, high-efficiency insulation, and a secure latched lid in a compact, limited-edition colorway. Built with the same tough DNA as our larger Elite Coolers, our Personal Coolers are built for job sites, range days, road trips, and everyday missions to keep your essentials cold, protected, and ready wherever the day takes you. Lightweight and portable, the America 250 Personal Cooler Series delivers the dependable grab-and-go performance you rely on, honoring the nation's milestone and made to travel anywhere, anytime.
